Workplace Violence Prevention Program:

I. Purpose

CSUM is committed to cultivating a safe, inclusive working environment. The purpose of this plan is to:

1. Identify the names and job titles of the persons responsible for the implementation and maintenance of the Workplace Violence Prevention Program,
2. Highlight how employees can report violent incidents, threats, or other workplace violence concerns
3. Describe how to discourage unlawful retaliation and report it if necessary
4. Report, in good faith, violent incidents, threats, or other workplace violence concerns,
5. Participate in any related investigations of such reports,
6. Provide procedures for responding to actual or potential workplace violence emergencies,
7. Detail training requirements about this plan, including the frequency of training,
8. Outline procedures to identify and evaluate workplace violence hazards and
9. Communicate post-incident response and investigation processes.

CSUM expects all employees to report any incidents of workplace violence promptly. Each report will be treated with the utmost seriousness and thoroughly investigated.

II. Workplace Violence Prevention Requirements

California Senate Bill 553 (SB 553) amended California Labor Code section 6401.7 and created section 6401.9, and the new requirements (Workplace Violence Prevention) found in those Labor Code sections will be in effect and enforceable on July 1, 2024.

III. Scope

The WVPP applies to all CSUM employees and volunteers as well as persons present in CSUM worksites. However, it does not apply to University employees when telecommuting from a location of the employee's choice that is not under the university's control. University auxiliary organizations are responsible for applying similar practices to their respective programs and activities.

IV. Definitions

1. Emergency: Unanticipated circumstances that can be life-threatening or pose a risk of significant injury/harm to employees or other persons.
2. Engineering Controls: An aspect of the built space or a device that removes a hazard from the workplace or creates a barrier between the employee and the potential hazard.
3. Log: The violent incident log is required by Labor Code Section 6401.9.

4. Procedural Controls: These refer to the policies, procedures, and protocols established to prevent or manage violent incidents in the workplace. These controls are typically part of a comprehensive violence prevention program and include:
 - A. Reporting and Documentation System: A system for reporting and documenting acts of violence. This includes procedures for employees to follow when lodging a complaint with the university, including how and when to report.
 - B. Response Procedures: Procedures for responding to instances of violence. This can include steps for immediate response, investigation, and follow-up.
 - C. Training and Education: Procedures for ensuring employee education and training on violence prevention. This includes training in recognizing potential risks, understanding violence prevention policy, and knowing what to do in the event of a violent incident.
 - D. Risk Assessment and Control Measures: Procedures for identifying contributing factors to workplace violence, assessing those factors, and selecting controls and prevention measures.
5. Threat of Violence: Any verbal or written statement, including, but not limited to, texts, electronic messages, social media messages, or other online posts, or any behavioral or physical conduct, that conveys an intent, or that is reasonably perceived to convey an intent, to cause physical harm or to place someone in fear of physical harm, and that serves no legitimate purpose.
6. Workplace Violence: This refers to any act or threat of violence that occurs in a place of employment. This term encompasses, but is not limited to, the following:
 - A. The threat or use of physical force against an individual that results in, or has a high likelihood of resulting in, injury, psychological trauma, or stress, irrespective of whether an injury is sustained.
 - B. An incident involving the threat or use of a firearm or other dangerous weapon, including the use of common objects as weapons, regardless of whether an injury is sustained.
 - C. Workplace violence falls into four categories, depending on the status of the person(s) committing the act:
 - Type 1 Violence:* Workplace violence committed by a person who has no legitimate business at the worksite and includes violent acts by anyone who enters the workplace with the intent to commit a crime.
 - Type 2 Violence:* Workplace violence directed at employees by students or visitors.
 - Type 3 Violence:* Workplace violence against an employee by a present or former employee, supervisor, or manager.
 - Type 4 Violence:* Workplace violence committed in the workplace by a person who does not work there but has or is known to have had a personal relationship with an employee.
 - D. The University defines these behaviors as follows:

Threat of Violence: A communicated intent to inflict physical or other harm on any person or property.

Act of Violence: Exercise of physical force against another person or property.

Note: The term “workplace violence” does not include lawful acts of self-defense or defense of others.

V. Workplace Violence Incidents

1. Reporting Workplace Violence

- A. Employees who witness or perceive an act of workplace violence on campus are expected to report such incidents of workplace violence through one or more of the following channels:
 - a. Dial 9-1-1 (when safe to do so).
 - b. Use Emergency Blue Phones.
 - c. Report to their appropriate administrator.
- B. Employees who witness or perceive an act of workplace violence on campus can also report such incidents to Human Resources at humanresources@csum.edu or 707-654-1138 or by calling Cal/OSHA at 1(800) 963-9424 or emailing them at InfoCons@dir.ca.gov and/or DOSHEnforcement@dir.ca.gov. (non-emergency only)
- C. For situations that do not involve an actual or imminent act of workplace violence or threat of violence, the incident should be reported promptly by submitting a report in Maxient at <https://www.csum.edu/safety/workplace-violence-prevention-program.html>.
- D. Individuals can report incidents verbally or in writing. However, a written report containing details about the incident is recommended. Individuals may also report incidents anonymously. CSUM will investigate anonymous reports to the greatest extent possible, given the level of detail contained or not contained in the report.
- E. All incidents, regardless of how they are reported, will be investigated pursuant to Section VIII of this program.
- F. Retaliation for reporting an instance of workplace violence is strictly prohibited. Any employee who retaliates against someone for reporting workplace violence is subject to discipline, up to and including non-retention, expulsion, and/or immediate removal from campus. Suspected retaliation should be reported to the appropriate administrator or Human Resources.
- G. To prepare for a workplace violence emergency and enhance the likelihood that an employee will report an incident, the University will undertake the following actions:
 1. Ensure that workplace violence prevention policies and procedures are discussed during new employee, and volunteer orientations.
 2. Require employees to complete workplace violence prevention training.
 3. Require all departments and administrative units to discuss, review, and communicate with their employees about security protocols and workplace violence hazards and mitigation measures in their work areas.
